The Chamber of Commerce of Hawaii, established in 1850, is the second oldest Chamber west of the Rockies and is one of the oldest business organizations in the Hawaiian Islands.

Formed during the reign of King Kamehameha III, it is the only Chamber in the United States established under a monarchy. Today, the Chamber of Commerce of Hawaii represents both a major metropolis and a state. The Chamber of Commerce of Hawaii maintains cordial relations with numerous local and ethnic chambers as well as with chambers and business organizations across the country. A tireless voice for free enterprise and responsible leadership, the Chamber has helped form some of the most respected community organizations in Hawaii, including the Retail Merchants of Hawaii (1901), Hawaii Visitors & Convention Bureau (1903), Aloha United Way (1909), Mental Health Association (1937), the blood Bank of Hawaii (1941), Tax Foundation of Hawaii (1945), Better Business Bureau (1945), Crime Stoppers of Hawaii (1981), Haku Alliance Association (1994).
